

Why just Teachers for Level 3?

There is no judgement at all with regards to only attuning Teachers.

It has been a question I asked of the Masters and Serapis Bey; they stated it would not be in their best interests spiritually to jump from Rahanni Level 1 and go direct to Rahanni Level 3 as the change in the vibrations get under-estimated because of people's enthusiasm, and that is understandable; but at soul level, it is too much too soon jumping to the 6th Dimensional vibrations. As been quoted before too much too soon can be a negative and not positive, so please be patient with your spiritual development. Remember also, that this 3rd level is also connected to the Ascension process of each individual.

I will offer more information with regards to the 6th Dimension and the possible changes that can take place within the mind as well as the body.

The 5th Dimension is amazing and beautiful and needs to be explored to its fullest capacity and many Rahanni Practitioners of Level 1 will be dealing with a massive change within their mind and body for quite a time and they need to have a certain amount of experience with clients before they move to the Teaching level 2 where there will be a massive jump in vibrations, that is required to teach. We do understand the enthusiasm and the feeling in their heart that they want to reach out to as many people as possible, but they need to pull the reins in a little, calm down and enjoy the process of Level 1 and Level 2 before thinking about Rahanni level 3.

Please do not rush this process, it needs a lot of thought, but do ask your Rahanni guides to show you how to continue to enjoy Practitioner Level before taking the next step to Rahanni level 2 and the delight of attuning Practitioners to the Teaching level and the opportunity of raising your ascension and spiritual vibration. When you have that experience then it could be the right time for Level 3 – Please don't rush
